About Sakaré

The Sakaré brand offers women the pinnacle of premium, result-oriented skin care through an eclectic range of pampering formulations that successfully synergize the best that nature and cosmetic technology have to offer. Our skin-glorifying face and body care products are powered by exclusive natural ingredients, sourced locally from diverse regions across the globe. Carefully balanced derivatives of plants, minerals and sea algae combine their proven abilities to repair, revive and rejuvenate tired and damaged skin, restoring it to youthful luster. Sakaré works with innovative skincare labs and leading manufacturers from all over the world in developing two premium product lines – an exclusive range of result-oriented skincare with powerful anti-aging properties and a collection of delightfully pampering bodycare products.

The Sakaré Brand

Sakaré is all about attaining the peak of self-realization and ambition. It's a self-indulgent, exclusive journey to aspire to look one's personal best. A voyage to beauty filled with pampering delights.

Bodycare Range

Sakaré Bodycare is filled with natural skin-healthy ingredients known for centuries for their positive impact in enveloping tired skin in pampering delight that lingers on.

Skincare Range

An uncompromising selection of the finest natural face care ingredients perfected by science into effective, results-based anti-aging formulas. Elegantly and effectively addresses every skincare challenge.

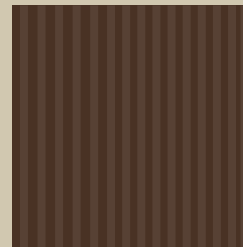

Sakaré Brand Look

The look & feel of the Sakaré line combines vintage elegance and a hint of retro-luxury with very clean modern lines and contemporary design. It serves as a perfectly balanced aesthetic that frames the brand's roots in classic beauty care provided by naturally skin-healthy ingredients harvested from choice locations and in innovative skincare perfected by today's cutting-edge scientific advances.

BODY CARE

All of our Bath and Body collections come in a choice of three exquisite fragrances:

Passion - a delightfully sweet and delicate fragrance with the fruity overtones of passion fruit and nectarines.

Ocean - a fresh and invigorating fragrance reminiscent of summer holidays and surf spray.

Pathcouli - a dark and enigmatic scent which is warm, woody and sensuous.

Sales Philoshopy

The sales method is interactive, and includes a frontal explanation and a demonstration of the products on the customer. The four stages of the sales process are as follows:

Sales Philosophy

Sakaré boutiques are designed with luxurious details that are vaguely reminiscent of the interiors of great cruise liners of yesteryear. A station by station flow and the intimate accompaniment of trained salespeople assures that every patron can experience and appreciate the full breadth of the product range from spa to skincare.
