

1ST ENGINEER

At Costa Cruises, we believe that motivation and challenges create passionate people, and passion makes the difference.

We are currently looking for 1st Engineer to join our ships.

Job Purpose

The 1st Engineer is a Licensed Engine watch keeper (Engineer On Watch or EOOW) who when on duty represents the Chief Engineer for all technical and watch keeping issues.

Key Accountabilities

- Reporting to Chief Engineer and to Staff Engineer;
- Keeping watch on the Engine Room for the safe conduction of ship operations;
- Attending arrival and departure maneuvering;
- Ensuring that all technical equipments are in proper working condition;
- Updating Official Log Books and Registers;
- Verifying, updating and planning the maintenance of machineries and plants;
- Supporting the maintenance and the repairing of the main and auxiliary engines and their belonging systems and equipment,
- Managing the requisition chain and verifying inventory and quantity in stock;
- Mentoring and developing the education of Junior Engineers and Ratings.

Requirements

- Diploma from an accredited maritime training school or facility;
- Certificate of Competency IMO III/2 plus all required STCW certificates;
- At least 12 months experience as 1st EOOW;
- Experience as EOOW on Cruise Vessels is an advantage;
- Good written, spoken and technical English;
- Computer literacy.
- Being committed to Safety;
- Respecting and applying Company Values being an example for others.

Apply today through our career website http://www.career.costacrociere.it/index_it.html