

NURSE - GERMAN SPEAKING (m/f/o)

Your Responsibilities:

- Qualified medical assistance to Passenger and Crew
- Assistance to the Ship's Doctor, undertaking consultation hours for Passenger and Crew
- Responsible for all administrative work in the Ship's Hospital like preparation of medical reports, permanent updating of the Medical Log Book, preparation of documents for local (port) health authorities, generate invoices, stock keeping and ordering, ...
- on-call duty in alternation with Ship's Doctor
- in charge for observance and execution of Health and Hygiene measures and policies
- other duties as instructed by Superiors or stipulated in manuals and instructions

Your Profile:

- Basic knowledge in „Internal Medicine“
- Basic knowledge and practical experience in Small Surgery, Wound Care, Sew Sore Assistance
- Laboratory Practice
- ECG execution and evaluation
- Knowledge and certification in x-ray protection (Kenntnisse Strahlenschutz), if certificate not yet available it can be done after first contract
- Experience in Emergency Medicine / Rescue Medicine is an advantage
- Very good command of the English language. English is on board language for Safety and Security. Work instructions and manuals are in English language. Medical Reports and reporting to local authorities in the different ports and countries is in English language.
- Experience in the use of PC's and user programs. Experience in PC based compilation of diagnosis-abstracts, patient billing and medicine stock ordering.
- Minimum of 5 years practical work experience in the field of profession after successful completion of apprenticeship.